

Questions We Can Ask God:

What do you want me to be thankful for today?
Who are you God?
What quality of yours do I need to remember today?
What promise do you want to give me today?
What gift do you want to give me today?
What game do you want to play with me today? Why?
How do you see me today?
What do you like about me today? Why?
What does my heart look like?
What gift can I offer you today?
What do you think about the TV/movies I watch?
What do you think about what I read?
What do you think about what I say? How I talk to others and about others?
What do you think about the way I am towards my parents, my siblings, my friends?
What problem am I carrying that you want me to give to you today?
What fears do I have that are holding me back?
What lie do I believe about myself?
Who do you want me to pray for today? What should I say?
Who can I encourage today? How?

Steps in Hearing from God...

Ask God:...(One of the Qs above...)?

Examine the Answer:

Is it Biblical? Think of a Bible verse.
Does the Holy Spirit give you peace?
Do other believers agree that it is from God? Ask a parent, a mentor/friend.
If you accept it, will it make a positive difference in your life? How?

Accept the Answer?:

Thank God...
Believe God...
Act on it - God wants me to....
I will tell ____ (a parent, a friend) to keep me in check.

Reject the Answer?:

Ask God where it came from...
Ask God what He wants you to do about it...
Carefully evaluate the answer...

"Be still and know that I am God." - Ps 46:10a

*Turn details and facts into understanding.
Listen for His voice. We can spend time with an expert, a wise person for hours but when God speaks to us, it's from our Creator.*

